

LINCOLN SCHOOL

P R O V I D E N C E

Lower and Middle School Art Teacher

Lincoln School, founded in 1884, is an independent K-12 Quaker girls' school in Providence, Rhode Island. We are currently seeking applicants for a full-time Lower/Middle School Art Teacher beginning in September 2021. Lincoln School values working with a diverse faculty and staff and seeks applications from individuals who share our commitment to educating girls to fearlessly embrace the opportunities and responsibilities of full citizenship in a complex world.

The Art Teacher works with the Art Department to develop and deliver innovative curriculum that emphasizes:

- Hands-on, inquiry-based learning.
- Creative risk-taking and generative thinking.
- Collaborative problem-solving.
- Experimentation and exploration with a wide range of art-making materials and processes, in both 2D and 3D.
- Exposure to diverse contemporary and historical artists.
- An anti-racist and inclusive perspective.

Qualifications:

We see a dynamic teacher who inspires students and works collaboratively and creatively with colleagues.

- Bachelor's degree required, Master's degree and teaching experience preferred
- Expert teaching and diverse media skills with Grade 1- 8 students and an understanding of and appreciation for the developmental range
- In-depth knowledge of content, current art education research, and best practice
- The ability to design, implement, and assess an art program
- A vision for an art program in the 21st century, with an eye toward innovation
- Continuing interest in professional growth
- Flexible team player
- Strong oral and written communication skills
- Excellent interpersonal and collaborative skills
- Professionalism in all aspects of the job

How to Apply:

Interested candidates should send a resume, statement of educational philosophy, and a list of 3-5 references to Julie Stafford, Human Resources Manager at jstafford@lincolnschool.org.
