

LINCOLN SCHOOL

P R O V I D E N C E

Auxiliary Programs Staff Member

Summary:

Lincoln School, founded in 1884, is an independent Early Childhood-Grade 12 Quaker school for girls in Providence, Rhode Island. We are currently seeking part-time energetic, dependable, and experienced childcare instructors to join our Auxiliary Programs department in the after-school program. The ideal candidates should be responsible and invested in students' well-being as well as in fostering positive relationships with parents. This is a great opportunity for recent college graduates or currently enrolled college students.

Requirements:

- At least one (1) year experience working with school age children from ages 4 to 12 in a group setting
- Must be able to pass all National and State required background checks
- Be a positive role model for students
- Build positive relationships with & between students
- Model professional behavior, friendly, and positive attitude
- Able to take initiative and work independently and as part of a team
- Support a positive, welcoming and respectful climate for youth and adults
- Must have reliable transportation

Interested candidates are encourage to send a cover letter, resume and a list of three references that includes name and contact information to Julie Stafford, Human Resource, Benefits, and Payroll Manager at jstafford@lincolnschool.org.

Lincoln School is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. Members of underrepresented groups and all persons committed to culturally responsive teaching are strongly encouraged to apply. Lincoln School values having diverse faculty and staff and strongly encourages applications from people of color, women, and people who are multilingual and share our commitment to educating girls to fearlessly embrace the opportunities and responsibilities of full citizenship in a complex world.